THE ROLE OF THE MAYOR'S CHAPLAINS

The Mayor's Chaplain is chosen by the Mayor and announced at the Council's Annual meeting in May of each year. More than one chaplain may be appointed at any one time – usually from the north and the south of the Borough. This is often the vicar, priest or minister of the Mayor's local church but to preserve continuity the Mayor could opt to retain one or more of the Chaplains from the previous mayoral year.

The post of Mayor's Chaplain has no legal status, is an honorary one, and as such is unpaid.

The traditional role of the Chaplain is to offer spiritual, pastoral and moral support/guidance to the Mayor in confidence.

Over and above being available to provide support should the Mayor so require, the Chaplains will also meet informally with the Mayor on at least three occasions during his or her term of office – at their discretion. The Mayor's Assistant will also provide the Chaplains with the Mayor's monthly/weekly diary of appointments to afford them to opportunity to include the Mayor in their thoughts and prayers.

The Chaplain is responsible for prayers before Council meetings. It serves as an opportunity to remind Members of their role as representatives of the larger community which they represent and the impact of their deliberations and decisions on their community as a whole.

The Chaplain also plays an important role in assisting with the format of the annual Civic Service and other services. He or she attends civic functions, for example Remembrance Day or any other occasions by invitation of the Mayor and is responsible for Grace at Civic Dinners where requested.

At Christmas time the Chaplain may accompany the Mayor on visits to local hospitals and homes and can also be relied on to support citizens and the community in a time of local crisis or disaster.

ITEM 8 Local Government and Housing Act 1989 Committees - Voting Rights and Political Balance

Report of the Head of Legal and Democratic Services (Portfolio: Leader)

Recommended:

1. That for the purposes of Part 1 of the Local Government and Housing Act, 1989 the allocation of seats on the Standing Committees of the Council - except Northern and Southern Area Planning Committees which are dealt with separately under 2 below - be as follows:

COMMITTEE	Group
General Purposes
Licensing
Overview and Scrutiny Committee
Planning Control Committee

2. As an alternative arrangement for the purposes of Part 1 of the Local Government and Housing Act, 1989, membership of Northern and Southern Area Planning Committees be comprised of all local members of the area, plus the Chairman of the Planning Control Committee if not a local member.
3. In the event that Council does not approve recommendation 2 above, then, for the purposes of Part 1 of the Local Government and Housing Act, 1989, the allocation of seats to the Northern and Southern Area Planning Committees be as follows:

COMMITTEE	Group
Northern Area Planning Committee (26)
Southern Area Planning Committee (24)

SUMMARY:

- The purpose of the report is to allocate seats to a political group that wishes to be treated as a political group for the purposes of the Local Government and Housing Act 1989.

1 Introduction

- 1.1 The Local Government and Housing Act 1989 (“the Act”) introduced the requirement that where members of an authority are formally divided into political groups, appointments to bodies to which the Act applies i.e. Committees and Sub-Committees, must be made on the basis of political proportionality.
- 1.2 The Council is treated as being divided into political groups when one group notifies its intention to be a political group.
- 1.3 It will be reported at the meeting if any groups have notified the Council of its intention to be a political group.

2 Political Balance on Committees

- 2.1 Where the membership of a district council is divided into formal political groups there is a duty on the Council to review the representation of the different political groups on committees. Committees in turn have a similar duty in respect of sub-committees appointed by them. The Council, or committee, has to determine the allocation of seats to the different political groups. That decision has to be made in accordance with the following principles.
  - (a) Not all seats on a committee are to be allocated to the same political group.
  - (b) That the majority of seats on a committee are allocated to the majority political group.
  - (c) That subject to (a) and (b) above, the number of seats on the ordinary committees of the Council allocated to each political group bears the same proportion to the total of all the seats on the ordinary committees of that authority as is borne by the number of members of that group to the membership of the Authority.
  - (d) That, subject to (a) – (c) above, the number of seats on the Committee allocated to each political group bears the same proportion to the number of all seats on that Committee as is borne by the number of members of that group to the membership of the Authority.

In other words, the intention is that as far as is practicable committees and sub-committees share the same political balance as the Council but within the foregoing rules.

- 2.2. Political groups need not necessarily be groups of members of the same political persuasion. They can be groupings on any basis and are to be defined further by the Regulations. In essence, political groups will be constituted by two or more members signing and delivering to the Proper Officer a request in writing to be treated as a political group. The request will state the description by which the group is to be known and must name one member as its leader.

- 2.3 Political groups within the definition will be entitled, within the rules, to allocate the seats available to their group to nominated group members of their choice.
- 2.4 The Council may decide unanimously (i.e. with no member voting against) that they wish to adopt some arrangement other than that which would be required by the Act. Such arrangements can take any form that is otherwise lawful. Formal notice of such proposals would need to accompany the summons for the relevant meeting of the Council Committee. Accordingly, the Planning Area Committees may retain their existing composition provided no member votes against the arrangement. If they do the proportionality rules must be applied.
- 2.5 It is also open for any of the political groups on a local authority to agree amongst themselves to arrangements that are different from those that the statutory provisions otherwise require.
- 2.6 Where more than one group reach agreement to use their nomination rights to give effect to the arrangements which they have reached, as regard their share of the seats, then those arrangements would apply, leaving the other groups on the Council to their statutory rights as to allocation of seats.

3 Review of Allocation of Seats

- 3.1. Notice must be given in a particular form, to the Proper Officer of any changes to political groups. If this is received more than one month after the last review, the Council and Committees must as soon as reasonably practicable review proportionality on committees and sub-committees respectively.

ITEM 10 Appointment of Chairman to Overview and Scrutiny Committee

Report of the Leader

Recommended:

That Council appoint the Chairman of the Overview and Scrutiny Committee.

SUMMARY:

- Following a review of the Constitution by the Overview and Scrutiny Committee, it was agreed that the appointment of the Chairman of the Committee should stand as a separate item at Annual Council.

1 Background

- 1.1 At its meeting on 14 April 2016 Council agreed that Vice-Chairman of the Overview and Scrutiny should be appointed from within the Committee's own membership at its first meeting following Annual Council.
- 1.2 Appointment from within the membership of the Committee offers a greater degree of autonomy and so underpins the sense of oversight of the Executive.
