Please state the ground(s) for representation:

Hampshire Constabulary has an objection to the granting of a personal licence to Amanda Jane Postle under the prevention of crime and disorder objective of the Licensing Act 2003. On 11 December 2007 Miss Postle appeared before North West Hampshire Magistrates Court and was charged of driving a motor vehicle with excess alcohol. Miss Postle provided a breath specimen of 68mg, which is almost twice the legal limit of 35mg and was banned from driving for 16 months.

The Licensing Act 2003 imposes a duty to sell alcohol in a responsible manner. Offences involving violence, dishonesty, misuse of drugs or alcohol and the breach or abuse of a position trust will be of particular importance to crime prevention in the licensed trade. Drink driving is viewed as a very serious offence and demonstrates an irresponsible attitude towards alcohol intake.

We question the ability of the applicant to supervise the intake of others when she has demonstrably failed to control her own. The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act means the offence is current and unspent until December 2012, only after this time when the conviction is spent would it be appropriate for a personal licence to be issued. Personal licence holders should be seen as role models and the granting of a licence would be in conflict of the police's drink drive strategy.

The Secretary of State recommends that, where the police have issued an objection notice, the licensing authority should normally refuse the application unless there are exceptional and compelling circumstances which justify granting it.

It is an offence, under section 158 of the Licensing Act 2003 to make a false statement in or in connection with this representation
