Please state the ground(s) for representation:

Jason Mark HAMMONDS has applied to transfer the premises licence for Abbey Hotel, Romsey to his name. He proposes his partner, Tanya DICKSON as Designated Premises Supervisor.

Hampshire Constabulary are satisfied that the exceptional circumstances of Mr Hammonds' previous actions at Licensed Premises are such that granting the application would undermine the crime prevention objective.

On the 13th February 2010 Mr Hammonds' and his brother were involved in a series of incidents in Romsey town centre, the second of which was reported to police. An emergency call came from the DPS of The Star PH that two males who had been removed from The Tavern PH earlier in the day were now in William IV PH and causing problems there. She reported that a lot of damage was believed to have been caused and was concerned as they appeared to be 'doing the rounds' whilst very much in drink.

On investigating this incident it transpires that a 'massive fight' had broken out during which 20 glasses had been broken and a bar stool. No formal complaint was made in terms of the criminal damage and therefore nobody was arrested. However, in his assessment of the incident PC 3331 MILLS states that 'At about 2150hrs 2 males,  and also HAMMONDS, entered the William Fourth P/H and started to cause problems. They were looking for  because of their suspicions that he was in some form of relationship with .' The report goes on to say that 'Given the circumstances I suspect that more occurred, e.g. assaults and more damage'.

This incident was discussed at a Pub Watch meeting and on the 19th February 2010 Mr Hammonds received a 1 year ban, which concluded on 30/03/2011.

On 12th March 2011, weeks before the conclusion of the Pub Watch ban Mr Hammonds was issued with a fixed penalty notice having committed an offence contrary to S5 Public Order Act 1986 in Winchester City Centre. The circumstances are detailed in the statement of Police Sergeant 1452 FISHER. Mr Hammonds was ejected from O'Neills Bar in Winchester for 'disrespectable' behaviour and was then arguing with the door staff, refusing to leave the premises and smoking in the doorway. PS FISHER attempted to issue Mr Hammonds with a Direction to Leave Notice under S27 Violent Crime Reduction Act 2006. Mr Hammonds

New grant or variation of premises licence
Or club premises certificate
Form for representations from Hampshire Constabulary

became aggressive, threatening in his manner, and repeatedly swore in the presence of the Sergeant and other members of the public. As a result Mr Hammonds was arrested for the public order offence. It is also evidenced within the statement of PS FISHER that Mr Hammonds was drunk. This incident causes concern firstly that Mr Hammonds, whilst drunk in a licensed premises, committed a crime. Secondly, Mr Hammonds demonstrates a repeated lack of understanding of the licensing objectives.

The police are not aware of any other instance where somebody previously banned from Pub Watch has applied to become a premises licence holder in the same area as the Pub Watch ban. This is then compounded by the most recent public order offence, leading police to believe that the circumstances of the case are exceptional. Mr Hammonds has demonstrated a propensity towards violence when in drink, a lack of ability to drink in moderation, and through his actions has seriously undermined the licensing objectives. The police believe that allowing Mr Hammonds to become a premises licence holder would result in the licensing objectives being further undermined, and that in a position of responsibility such as this, that the consequences of this would have a significant impact on the community.

It is an offence, under section 158 of the Licensing Act 2003 to make a false statement in or in connection with this representation

Police recommendations (including any conditions)

That Mr Hammonds is not able to become premises licence holder at the premises.

It is anticipated that regardless of the outcome of this objection, Mr Hammonds will have a level of involvement with the premises. It is recommended that in order to safeguard the promotion of the licensing objectives, the following conditions be added to the licence:

CCTV warning signs to be fitted in public places.

Or club premises certificate

Remarks: Initial report

At about 2150 hours 2 males, [REDACTED] and also HAMMONDS, entered the William Fourth P/H and started to cause problems.

They were looking for [REDACTED] because of their suspicions that he was in some form of relationship with [REDACTED]

There was 2 staff on at the time of the incident. [REDACTED] was outside and did not see anything and [REDACTED]. She was collecting glasses at the back of the P/H in the area of the pool table. The P/H was reasonably busy at that time. She heard a commotion and turned around to see what was going on and she described it as "A MASSIVE FIGHT. IT LOOKED LIKE EVERYONE WAS FIGHTING". During this several glasses and an old bar stool were smashed / broken.

She then called the police but by the time they arrived the 2 males had left.

A female by the name of [REDACTED] had come into the P/H and taken them away.

Police conducted an area search at that time but could not find them.

Police attended a scheduled appointment on the 15th

At that time both [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were spoken to and a PNB entry was taken.

[REDACTED] view was that the damage was minimal and as a result had only had the police called because she wanted to raise the 2 males at the next Pub Watch Meeting. She was not interested in make a formal complaint of damage with a view to having them arrested. However she was told that after review by a supervisor then these 2 males may be arrested.

[REDACTED] also provided a PNB entry, but could not identify what specifically went on and who to.

Given the circumstances I suspect that more occurred, e.g. assaults and more damage, given the nature of [REDACTED] description of the incident.

There have been no other reports from potential victims who may have been

I am Police Sergeant 1452 Andrew Fisher of the Hampshire Constabulary and am currently stationed at Winchester Police Station.

At approximately 0050hours on Saturday 12th March 2011, I was on mobile uniform cycle patrol in The High Street, Winchester. As I approached the O'Neills Licensed Premises at this location, I saw 2 members of doorstaff speaking with a male who I now know to be: Jason HAMMONDS dob 29/08/69 of 66 Cherville Street, Romsey. As I approached HAMMONDS he was unaware I was there as I was behind him. I could tell that there was some form of disagreement as he was arguing with the doorstaff.

I spoke to one of the members of the doorstaff to try and find out what the issue was with regards to HAMMONDS. I was informed that he had been ejected because of his disrespectful behaviour and that they had told him that he was not going to be allowed back in but he was refusing to leave. They also mentioned that he had been smoking in the doorway.

I asked HAMMONDS to come away from the entrance doors to O'Neills so that I could have a chat with him. I explained to him that due to his behaviour he was not allowed back into O'Neills. I then informed HAMMONDS that I was going to issue him with a Section 27 Direction to Leave Notice to ensure that he left the Town Centre. HAMMONDS immediately took offence to this and raised his voice and said: "FUCK OFF". As he did this he tried to move past me. I moved in front of him to stop him walking away and HAMMONDS became very argumentative and threatening in his posture. Due to his reaction and his aggressive manner, I called up on the Shopwatch Radio to get the controller to make sure that we were on the CCTV camera, as I felt that the situation could escalate. I warned HAMMONDS about his swearing and told him to calm down or he would be arrested.

WITNESS STATEMENT

(CJ Act 1967, s.9; MC Act 1980, ss.5A(3) (a) and 5B; MC Rules 1981, r.70)

Continuation of Statement of: Andrew Fisher

HAMMONDS started to try and walk past me. I tried to explain to him that I was going to give him the Direction to Leave notice and he would then have to leave the Town Centre. HAMMONDS refused to listen and said: "FUCK OFF. I'M GOING UP HERE" (looking to Jewry Street). As he said this, he had raised his voice and there were members of the public walking past. Due to HAMMOND's behaviour, I had already used my police radio to ask for another officer to attend my location as I felt that HAMMONDS could start to assault me.

HAMMONDS refused to give me his name and address. When other police officers arrived, he continued to be obstructive and refused to comply with my requests. As a result of his repeated swearing at me, at 0050 hours I said to HAMMONDS: "I am arresting you for Section 5 Public Order."

I then cautioned him HAMMONDS made no reply after Caution. The arrest was necessary for a prompt and effective investigation.

Due to his aggressive behaviour, I placed handcuffs on HAMMONDS. These were applied in a side by side position to his front and double locked.

When HAMMONDS was swearing at me, he was doing it in Jewry Street. This is one of the main streets in Winchester for the pubs and clubs and is a busy thoroughfare at this time of night with members of the public regularly walking along it. As such, any members of the public walking past would have been able to hear HAMMONDS swearing.

HAMMONDS smelt strongly of intoxicating liquor and he was a bit unsteady on his feet. His eyes were glazed and his speech was slurred. I formed the opinion that he was drunk. As I took HAMMONDS to the rear of the police van, he almost fell to the ground as he tried to get into the rear cage. HAMMONDS was then placed in the rear of the police van and conveyed by PC24242 DOYLE to Winchester Police Station.

I would describe HAMMONDS as a white male, aged in his forties and approx. 5'8" tall. He had receding dark brown hair and a proportionate build. HAMMONDS was wearing a grey hoody top with a cartoon character on the front. He wore light blue jeans and black training shoes.

I have had no further dealings with HAMMONDS.
