

To whom it may concern,

Longparish Parish Council have had the opportunity to review the updated Village Design Statement on numerous occasions during the last couple of years during which the new edition has been put together.

The Village Design Statement has been discussed regularly at our monthly meetings and we are very happy to support the final version of the document.

Approved at the December 2024 Parish Council Meeting