For the purposes of this form –

“relevant person” means that a pecuniary interest is a ‘disclosable pecuniary interest’ in relation to you if it is your interest, or it is an interest of your:

- (i) spouse or civil partner,
 - (ii) a person with whom you are living as husband and wife, or
 - (iii) a person with whom you are living as civil partners,
- and you are aware that the other person has the interest.

“relevant period” means 12 months ending with the day on which the member gives the notification.

“the Act” means the Localism Act 2011;

“body in which the relevant person has a beneficial interest” means a firm in which the relevant person is a partner or a body corporate of which the relevant person is a director, or in the securities of which the relevant person has a beneficial interest;

“director” includes a member of the committee or management of an industrial and provident society;

“beneficial interest” means in relation to land ownership of the freehold or leasehold interest or any other interest such as an option to purchase. In relation to other classes of property such as securities it means ownership.

“land” includes an easement, servitude, interest, or other right which does not carry with it a right for the relevant person to occupy the land or to receive income; and

“securities” means shares, debentures, debenture stock, loan stock, bonds, units of a collective investment scheme within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000(b) and other securities of any description, other than money with a building society.
